FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLM ACCEPTING VOLUNTEER APPLICATIONS

MILES CITY – The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) is seeking an individual or a couple willing to volunteer as site hosts at the William L. Matthews Wildlife Habitat and Recreation Site, from June through October. The Matthews Site is located about nine miles northeast of Miles City on the south side of the Yellowstone River. Duties include greeting the public, providing visitor information, and assisting with site maintenance.

Volunteers can stay at the site in their own camp trailer or motor home with septic system hook-up and electricity provided. Hosts should commit to a minimum stay of 30 days and a small stipend will be allowed to cover some expenses while staying at the site.

For more information and a complete description of duties, contact Fred Wambolt, BLM Supervisory Land Use Specialist, Miles City Field Office, 111 Garryowen Road, Miles City, Montana 59301, or call (406) 233-2840.
